Title: Robert Tronolone photographs.

Creator: Tronolone, Robert.

Call Number: Archival Collection 97

Quantity: 79 linear feet

Abstract: The Robert Tronolone photographs, 1950-2002 consists of approximately 50,000 negatives of sports car racing in the 1950s-1970s and from Indy Car races from the 1950s through 1990s. Also included in the collection are images of USAC, CART, and NASCAR races. Many of the races represented in the photographs were held in California and the western United States. This collection also includes moving image film of the Indianapolis 500 and photographic prints of auto races and racing drivers.

Language: Materials are in English.

Biography: Robert “Bob” Tronolone was born in New York City. His family moved west and settled in Arizona, where he photographed his first race, a 100-mile race for AAA Championship cars held at a dirt track at the Arizona State Fairgrounds in Phoenix. In 1955, he was drafted to serve with the Army in Korea for 21 months. After his time in the Army, he resumed his photography and focused on dirt-track races for Championship and Sprint cars. A large focus of his work is on amateur sports car racing in California during the 1950s. He attended and photographed every Indianapolis 500 from 1961-1993. Tronolone’s images are respected and admired for their composition, and many were published.

Scope and Content Note: The Robert Tronolone photographs, 1950-2002 consists of six series:

Series 1. Moving Image Film Reels: contains 35 moving image film reels, most reels are about the Indianapolis 500 from the late 1950s to the 1960s.

Series 2. Color Transparencies: consists of 76 processed boxes. These transparencies include images of Indianapolis 500 races from the early 1950s to the late 1990s. Also included are images from AAA dirt track champ car races from the 1950s. Notable persons include A.J. Foyt, Bill Vukovich, Roger Ward, Parnelli Jones, Sam Hanks, Mario Andretti, Bobby Unser, and others.

Series 3. Color Negatives: consists of 96 images featuring US open wheel racing and sports racing cars.

Series 4. Black and White Negatives: consists of 87 images featuring the 1961 Indianapolis 500, SCCA racing from the late 1950s, open wheel racing in the 1990s, and other unidentified American auto races.

Series 5. Prints: consists of three manuscript boxes and one oversize box containing images of professional auto racing taken by various photographers. Primary focus is on American open wheel and road racing.

Series 6. Documents: consists of one manuscript box and one archival box containing auto racing media guides, newspaper clippings, and racing themed hats.

Acquisition Note: Accession number: 2018-044

Access Restrictions: The Robert Tronolone photographs, 1950-2002 are open for research.

Publication Rights: Copyright has been assigned to the Revs Institute.
